Distinguished Family
Violence Lecture

Secrecy, Shame, and Stigmatization:
Ending the Silence About
Violence Against Women

Charlotte Pierce-Baker is a professor of Women's & Gender Studies and English at Vanderbilt University in Nashville, Tennessee. Baker, a rape survivor, is the author of the highly regarded book, SURVIVING THE SILENCE: BLACK WOMEN'S STORIES OF RAPE, published by W.W. Norton.

Join us to us discuss what can be done to ensure that violence victims are not further shamed and stigmatized by society. What can we do to encourage reporting and help seeking?
